Dear sixth form students, parents & carers,

Re Sixth Form summer uniform

If (or, more hopefully, when) the weather finally warms up and we see the sun. I just wanted to clarify our expectations around uniform.

For the final part of the summer term, blazers/jackets will no longer be mandatory; shirts (either long or short-sleeved) may be worn without ties; and polo shirts may be worn if desired.

As always, please bear in mind that we are dressing for a warm office rather than a beach – so all clothes will need to be comfortable yet presentable, setting an example to our younger students. Therefore, there should be no logos on display; tops should be of a suitable length (no crop tops!), should still be smart, and should cover the shoulders (no spaghetti straps!). Footwear, too, should be formal rather than casual (no trainers!).

If you or your child need clarification on any point, their form tutor will be happy to provide this.

Kind regards,

Matthew Pike
Head of Sixth Form
