1. Definitions

Definition of Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND)

We use the definition for SEND from the SEND Code of Practice (January 2015).

This states: SEND: A child or young person has special educational needs if he or she has a learning difficulty or disability which calls for special educational provision to be made for him or her.

A learning difficulty or disability is a significantly greater difficulty in learning than most others of their peers.

Special educational provision means educational or training provision that is additional to, or different from, that made generally for others of the same age in a mainstream setting in England.

Disability: Many children and young people who have SEND may have a disability under the Equality Act 2010 – that is ‘...a physical or mental impairment which has a long-term and substantial adverse effect on their ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities

2. Aims

Our SEND policy and information report aims to:

- Set out how our school will support and make provision for pupils with special educational needs (SEND)
- Explain the roles and responsibilities of everyone involved in providing for pupils with SEND.

Sir Thomas Fremantle School is committed to ensuring that all students achieve their full potential and to helping them to develop into well rounded, confident individuals who can fulfil their role as positive members of their local community and the wider society. The school aims to be inclusive and provide an equality of opportunity for all students, irrespective of ability or disability and encourage strategies for dealing with their needs in a supportive environment.

Our vision and values are curated around the need for an inclusive setting. We ensure that the best outcomes for students are met by quality first teaching in class. In addition to quality first teaching, pupils with EHCP's or identified as SEND Support will have individual Learning Plans. These will be written by the SEND Department based on any professional reports. Learning Plans will be adhered to by Teaching Staff which allows individual needs to be catered for. Students have access to a broad and balanced curriculum. We work with external agencies and specialists to deliver interventions when necessary or highlighted on EHCP plans to ensure that outcomes are achieved. Our focus is on the child and their potential with a focus on what they can achieve, rather than what they cannot achieve.

Our SEND Register has three categories; EHCP, SEND Support and SEND Monitoring.

- Students with an EHCP will have a Learning Plan (written by the SEND Team) and a Pupil Passport (written by the Form Tutor).
- SEND Support Students will have a Learning Plan (Written by the SEND Team).
- SEND Monitoring students will have a Pupil Passport (written by the Form Tutor).

The form tutor has responsibility of reviewing SEN support plans and liaising with staff about any changes or concerns, termly. Overall co-ordination comes from our SENDCO, Fiona Ell.

We do not exclude students from their peers or education by offering a SEN base nor do we believe in an attachment 1:1 TA support as it hinders independence and encourages over-reliance.

In short, our school offer is:

- To ensure that all students whatever their special educational needs is that they receive appropriate educational provision through a broad and balanced curriculum that is relevant and differentiated, and that demonstrates coherence and progression in learning using high-quality teaching.
- To secure high levels of success and challenge.
- Promoting students' self-esteem and Wellbeing.
- To encourage confidence and a positive attitude to independent learning.
- To give all students with SEND equal opportunities to take part in all aspects of the schools' provision if it is appropriate.
- To identify, assess, record, and regularly review students' progress and needs.
- Through the assess, plan, review, do cycle which the tutor will run three times, annually.
- Provision of the Wellbeing Room: students who require a quiet and calm space can access this before school or during social times.
- To involve and form partnerships with parents/ careers in planning and supporting all stages of students' development.

- To offer small group interventions based on the SEND needs which are identified each academic year.
- To work collaboratively with parents/carers, other professionals and support services and external agencies as required.
- To work with the Governing body and the Student welfare Committee to ensure reporting responsibilities are maintained and that the Governing body, to enable them to fulfill their statutory monitoring role regarding SEND.
- To ensure that all staff have access to training and advice to support high quality teaching and learning for SEND students.

monitoring progress. They can contribute to review meetings and help pupils with SEND to access to a broad and balanced curriculum.

LSA's should:

- Be fully aware of the school's SEND policy and the procedures for identifying, assessing and making provision for pupils with SEND.
- Work in line with the non-statutory Professional Standards for Teaching Assistants.

5. SEND information report

5.1 The kinds of SEND that are provided for.

The SEND Code of Practice recognises four broad areas of need: Communication and Interaction, Cognition and Learning, Social, Emotional and Mental Health and Sensory and/or

Our school currently provides additional and/or different provision for a range of needs, including:

- Communication and interaction, for example, autistic spectrum disorder, Asperger's Syndrome, speech, and language difficulties
- Cognition and learning, for example, dyslexia, dyspraxia
- Social, emotional, and mental health difficulties, for example, attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD)
- Sensory and/or physical needs, for example, visual impairments, hearing impairments, processing difficulties, epilepsy.
- Moderate/severe/profound and multiple learning difficulties

5.2 Identifying pupils with SEND and assessing their needs.

Sir Thomas Fremantle School will regularly observe, assess, and record the progress of all students, and this will be used to identify students who are not progressing adequately and who may have additional needs. The following information will be collected and considered:

- Baseline assessment results
- Key Stage 2 results
- Subject teacher observation
- Ongoing half termly subject assessments
- Liaison with the young person and their parents/carers

Class teachers and Heads of Departments will make regular assessments of progress for all pupils and identify those whose progress:

- Is significantly slower than that of their peers starting from the same baseline.
- Fails to match or better the child's previous rate of progress.
- Fails to close the attainment gap between the child and their peers.
- Widens the attainment gap.

This may include progress in areas other than attainment, for example, social needs, slow progress and low attainment will not automatically mean a pupil is recorded as having SEND.

When deciding whether special educational provision is required teaching staff will follow a 6 week ADPR (Assess, Plan, Do, Review) cycle which will be overseen by the SENDCo.. We will use this to determine the support that is needed and whether we can provide it by adapting our core offer, or whether something different or additional is needed.

5.3 Consulting and involving pupils and parents.

We will have an early discussion with the pupil and their parents when identifying whether they need special educational provision. These conversations will make sure that:

- Everyone develops a good understanding of the pupil's areas of strength and difficulty.
- We consider and listen to parents' concerns.
- Everyone understands the agreed outcomes sought for the child and a plan and passport are created.
- Everyone is clear on what the next steps are.

Notes of these early discussions will be added to the pupil's record and given to their parents. We will formally notify parents when it is decided that a pupil will receive SEN support.

5.4 Assessing and reviewing pupils' progress towards outcomes.

We will follow the graduated approach and the four-part cycle of assess, plan, do, review. The class or subject teacher will work with the SENDCO to carry out a clear analysis of the pupil's needs. This will draw on:

- The teacher's assessment and experience of the pupil
- Their previous progress and attainment or behavior
- Other teachers' assessments, where relevant
- The individual's development in comparison to their peers and national data
- The views and experience of parents
- The pupil's own views
- Advice from external support services, if relevant

The assessment will be reviewed regularly.

All teachers and support staff who work with the pupil will be made aware of their needs, the outcomes sought, the support provided, and any teaching strategies or approaches that are required. We will regularly review the effectiveness of the support and interventions and their impact on the pupil's progress. Each child with an EHCP or identified as SEND Support have a Pupil Passport created on Provision Map which is reviewed by tutor, 3 times a year. These reviews will then be sent to parents for consultation and comments. Pupil Passports will be reviewed as and when deemed necessary by staff, students or parents.

5.5 Supporting pupils moving between phases and preparing for adulthood.

We will share information with the school, college, or other setting the pupil is moving to. We will agree with parents and pupils which information will be shared as part of this. We seek support from external agencies in relation to the individual needs of the child.
